Is this your restaurant?this list claims Open0.59 mi time claiming this business is your business? So, we came here this time with high expectations that were soon broken. We were seated right away. When we ordered Guava Frozen Margarita from Special.Menu. I'm sorry, there is no guava. What. At 6 p.m., no one else in the house, do you use up the ingredients for a special drink? Sorry, out of the mango. Oh, my God. In the end, we ended up with three frozen margaritas and were very disappointed. The slash you expect from the frozen margarita, not the texture of Hawaiian ice. There is no distinguishable taste of tequila. Metal straws with small holes were not very useful and we gave up after a while. Appetizers were a mixed blessing. Guacamole was a joke. n degrees bland. Zero spices and salt. They turned out to have a disappointing looking topping bar and it provided at least some hot sauce. On the other hand, Al Pastor Polk and Waratahs were excellent. All of our entrees were described by members of our party as bland and prepared without love. I last time acclaimed fish tacos? I couldn't wait last time. This time. There is no such thing. I must agree with the other reviewers - this place went downhill after it resumed. COVID-19 Alert Details: COVID-19 Coronavirus may affect time and menu options.
